Bening Saguling - Citarum River Conservation Project

Background :

Citarum is the longest river in West Java runs over 300 kilometres from the Wayang Mountain to the Java Sea. There are 30 million people rely on the water source for agriculture, water supply, fishery, industry, sewerage, electricity, etc. However, unregulated factory growth since the area's rapid industrialisation in the 1980s has choked the Citarum with both human and industrial waste. The 5 million people who lived in the river basin are directly affected. Over 200 textile factories line the river banks and contaminate the river with lead, mercury, arsenic and other toxins, changing its colour and lending the area an acrid odour. Moreover, the river is also polluted and filed with trash such plastic, styrofoam, even dead animals.

Project Aims :

- ✓ To support the foundation program in Environment conservation, social and education
- ✓ To promote the foundation as a learning center for environment conservation
- ✓ To organize mini library for local people
- ✓ To spread out the idea of voluntary service and international workcamp among the local people
- ✓ To raise awareness about the garbage problem in Citarum river
- ✓ To organize environment education for children in Citarum Basin Area.

Main Work :

There are two activities: Physical Work (Picking up garbage from Citarum river and saguling basin, doing garbage management, planting trees, making organic fertilizer, gardening, and making handy craft) and Non-physical Work (Conducting language class, mentoring green school project, taking part in culture class, doing school visits, organizing an environment educational workshop or socialization, creating art activities and promoting mini-library)

Star Paws - Stray Cat Project

Background :

Some people just ignore the existence of stray cats in their neighborhood or even see stray cats as pests. They live in the traditional market, housing area, and also the streets. Often, we find kittens being dumped inside a box on the street and in the traditional markets. People just don't want to be bothered by the newborn kitten and think that dumping the kittens in the traditional market will solve the problem. In fact, almost all kittens die instead of surviving. It is not different from slowly killing them.

Project Aims :

This project focuses on two main activities. Raising awareness of local people against animal abuse, spreading the message to start doing good things for stray animals around us. Supporting the cat lover community by helping them to maintain the shelter, street feeding, and fundraising. By joining this project, volunteers will also learn how to pet a cat properly and have a chance to practice Indonesian Traditional Martial Arts.

Main Works :

- ✓ Street Feeding in Universities, Traditional Market, and other places.
- ✓ Manual works in the cat shelter
- ✓ Caretaking a cat (volunteers have to choose a cat from Star Paws as their pet during the workcamp)
- ✓ Campaign against animal abuse using social media
- ✓ Mini-workshop on stray cat care issues
- ✓ Semarang Historical City Tour
- ✓ Practicing Indonesian traditional martial art
- ✓ Culture exchange with university students

Accommodation :

- ✓ 2nd floor of the Star Paws Building
- ✓ Shared room with the other volunteers
- ✓ Shared bathroom and toilet
- ✓ Shared kitchen & fridge
- ✓ Wifi available
- ✓ Close to the ATM, food stall, and supermarket
- ✓ Laundry shop available nearby
