Star Paws Stray Cat Project

Background :

Some people just ignore the existence of stray cats in their neighborhood or even see stray cats as pests. They live in the traditional market, housing area, and also the streets. Often, we find kittens being dumped inside a box on the street and in the traditional markets. People just don't want to be bothered by the newborn kitten and think that dumping the kittens in the traditional market will solve the problem. In fact, almost all kittens die instead of surviving. It is not different from slowly killing them.

Project Aims :

This project focuses on two main activities. Raising awareness of local people against animal abuse, spreading the message to start doing good things for stray animals around us. Supporting the cat lover community by helping them to maintain the shelter, street feeding, and fundraising. By joining this project, volunteers will also learn how to pet a cat properly and have a chance to practice Indonesian Traditional Martial Arts.

Main Works :

- ✓ Street Feeding in Universities, Traditional Market, and other places.
- ✓ Maintaining the cat shelter
- ✓ Taking care the rescued cats
- ✓ Learning and practicing the basic needs of petting a cat
- ✓ Learning how to groom a cat
